

CHAPTER EVENTS FOR THE 2010-2011 YEAR

SEPTEMBER

11th (Saturday) 7:30 p.m.

"Christmas Organ Music for Church"

Daybreak Stake Center
4517 W. Mille Lacs Drive
South Jordan

-- Andrew Unsworth will play excerpts from new and dust-covered organ pieces composed or arranged for the Christmas season. Come and note new works to expand your repertoire.

OCTOBER

16th (Saturday) 3:00p.m.

"Master Class on French Romantic Organ Music"

First Presbyterian Church
South Temple and "C" Street
Salt Lake City

--Clay Christiansen will share his expertise and insights to four chapter members performing organ music from the French Romantic period. If you are interested and would like to be one of the four, please contact Scott Mills.

NOVEMBER

14th (Sunday) 5:30 p.m.

"Wesleyan Sermons"

First United Methodist Church
2nd South and 2nd East
Salt Lake City

--Chapter members have the opportunity to help 1st UMC raise funds to restore their pipe organ by playing an expanded version of their twice-monthly program. If you are interested and would like to be one of the performers, please contact Scott Mills.

DECEMBER

No official chapter event is scheduled. Instead, we will send out a list of the many events and programs planned by chapter members for your interest.

JANUARY 2011

29th (Saturday)

"Celebrating the 200th Birthday of Aristide Cavallé-Coll"

Temple Square
Salt Lake City

--Kurt Lueders and Jesse Eschbach will fill our day with information and music related to Aristide Cavallé-Coll. These world-leading experts will share their skills with us. In the afternoon, Kurt will give a lecture/presentation on ACC, his life and his works. In the evening, Jesse will perform music composed because of the development of the symphonic organ on the Tabernacle organ.

FEBRUARY

12th (Saturday) 10:00 a.m.

"Choral Reading Session"

Day Murray Music
4914 South State St.

Murray
--DMM will share their recommendations for your church choir of new releases and hidden gems.

MARCH

5th (Saturday) 7:30 p.m.

"J. S. Bach"

St. Mark's Cathedral
231 East 100 South
Salt Lake City

--Doug Bush will share his knowledge of Bach. Will he talk or will he play -- maybe both? Come and find out.

APRIL

9th (Saturday) 9:00 a.m.

"Pedal, Pipes and Pizza"

Bigelow Organ Factory
130 West 100 South
American Fork

--An exciting outing for your youth, 11-17 years old, will begin at Bigelow's in American Fork. This is a unique opportunity to see a pipe organ nearing completion that will be housed at St. Mark's Cathedral in SLC.

MAY

7th (Saturday) 7:00 p.m.

"Members' Recital"

St. Paul's Episcopal Church
261 South 900 East
Salt Lake City

--Here's a third opportunity to play. Pick a piece and play your heart out! If interested in performing at our closing social contact Scott Mills.

SUMMER 2011

August 6th (Saturday) 9 a.m.

"Super Saturday"

U. of U. Gardner Hall
--An exciting day of events is already being planned. This move to August provides us with the opportunity to extend the day. We will be holding events all the way up to 5 p.m. Keep watching the newsletter and the website www.slcaigo.org for more information.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Harry Cross, Dean
Scott Mills, Sub-Dean
Kate Rockwood, Secretary
Charles Black, Treasurer
Janet Griffin, Historian

NEWSLETTER EDITOR

Lora Kelly
Send submissions to:
lorakelly@me.com